Milder Weather Brings Out
Trench Raiders.

Artillery, Infantry, Sappers and Airmen at Work.

All Statements Claim Small Successes or Gains.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.
PARIS, Feb. 13.—The War Office

tonight reports:
"Between the Oise and the Aisne

we carried out decisive fire against German organizations in the region of Quenneville. Northeast of Rheims one of our detachments made an in-cursion into the adversary trenches and brought back fifteen prisoners, among them two noncommissioned officers.

"The artillery action was quite lively in the sectors of Les Malcons de Champagne and Four de Paris; intermittent on the rest of the front.

"Eastern theater: The weather has improved a little and operations have been more active. Artillery fighting has occurred in Strun and Vardar sectors. Raids by British troops on Palms and the Dolan region enabled them to take prisoners. Between the Cerna and Lake Fruska the bombardment was particularly violent.

Several surprise attacks attempted by the German troops were repulsed by the Italians. Bands of Austro-

Albanians are reported at Mekani, northwest of Koritza. In the same region Erzen has been occupied by the Italians.

"Belgian communication:
"At various points along the Belgian front the artillery was active, especially in the sectors of Ramcapelle, Dixmude and Steenstraete."

BRITISH REPORT RAID.
BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.

LONDON, Feb. 13, 10:30 p.m.—
British headquarters in France tonight reports:

"Early last night a strong hostile raiding party was driven off by our fire south of Pys and suffered heavy losses, leaving prisoners in our hands.

"Today the enemy made repeated attacks, all unsuccessful, on our new positions south of Serra. Early this morning we carried out a raid east of Souchez. Our troops penetrated several hundred yards into the enemy's trenches this morning and during the night northeast of Neuville St. Vaast, north of Loos and east of Tyres. We destroyed several occupied dugouts and took a few prisoners. A small party of the enemy succeeded in reaching our trenches south of Armentieres, but was at once ejected.

"There was considerable artillery activity on both sides in the neighborhood of the Somme and in the Tyres sector."

ARTILLERY ACTIVITY.
BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.

ROME, Feb. 13 (via London, 4:52 p.m.)—"On the Trentino front the activity of the artillery increased in the Tonale pass on the western slopes of Monte Sogana, in the La-garina, Valley, in the upper Travi-gnolo and in the Cordovole Valley," says today's official statement.

"In the Arsa Valley and on the upper Coalba torrent, on the right bank of the Brenta, hostile raids were repulsed. In the upper But Valley the artillery was inactive. Our batteries set fire to some enemy bar-acks behind Val Piccolo.

"Enemy airplanes bombarded Cervignano and some villages on the lower Isonto. Three women and one child were killed."

"Italian seaplanes yesterday made an effective raid upon Pola, throwing bombs on the arsenal and on ships in the harbor," says an Admirally announcement. "All the Italian machines returned undamaged."

Los Angeles Letter in Divorce Case

Admits It.
[BY DIRECT WIRE.—CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Pearl M. Elwell, an actress, today filed a bill for divorce from Arthur T. Elwell, an actor, charging infidelity and offered in evidence several letters she alleges were written to her husband

by other women. In her bill Mrs.
Elwell alleges they were married

January 23, 1914, in Fort Benton, Mont., and that they lived together until three days ago.

Mrs. Elwell's first husband was William Beck, a wealthy Seattle man.

After his death she married Elwell.

She is well known on the Coast.
One of the letters was from "Lilspeaks of several stolen hugs and Cuba, which has been used as a detention ship for army officers suspected of complicity in the revolt, docked here tonight. The detained

THE PLAIN TRUTH

WE MEAN exactly what we say. There is neither honor nor profit in fooling people. The future is of a great deal more importance to us than the present. The present is only one day. The future represents years and years. It is the sale to come in the future that we are thinking about and working hard to secure. We want our customers to say all the good they can about us. The good they do us is worth more than column after column of newspaper advertising. We know that it pays to please people. We know there is more money in giving satisfaction than in not giving it. The plain truth: We propose to satisfy you—to please you in every way, to offer you the certainty of satisfaction.

Why should you let the matter of having a piano in your home rest longer when you can buy a good New standard make

JOY AT EL PASO.
BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

EL PASO, Feb. 13.—Announcement that the port of Columbus, N.

M., would not be closed if Villa troops occupied Palomas, the border port opposite Columbus, caused much rejoicing here among Villa partisans. This was taken as an indication that the United States would not interfere in the internal affairs of Mexico and if Villa forces occupied Juarez, the El Paso-Juarez port would remain open.

It was stated here by a high government official that the United States was not expected to take any action against Villa should Salazar succeed in capturing Juarez, unless there was firing across the border.

AIRPLANES LEAVE.
BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

COLUMBUS (N. M.) Feb. 13.—
United States army airplanes left the ground at daylight today to make an investigation of the reported Villa movements in the vicinity of Palomas, seven miles south of here and three miles below the border line Signal Corps observers made the flights with the aviators and prepared detailed reports of the Mexican troop movements below the border. No official announcement has yet been made here of the outcome of these observations.

It was believed here today that Jose Ynes Salazar, who was reported to be in command of the Villa troops operating near the border, was planning to make a detour in the direction of Juarez, where scattered Villa bands were scheduled to concentrate for an attack on the town opposite El Paso.

Appellate Court Hands Down Decision in Stock and Injury Cases.

The District Court of Appeals yesterday affirmed the judgment of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county, in favor of the plaintiff in the suit brought by Lucius E. Edmonds against the National Home and Town Builders, and denied the defendants a new trial.

The corporation refused to transfer to the plaintiff certain stocks evidenced by a certificate secured from J. F. Clark. It was claimed that the certificate had come into his possession without any consideration being given for it, but the court finds that Clark had performed certain services for the company and was entitled to the stock.

In the suit brought by O. P. Giffon against Howard Brinkley, a contractor, for damages on account of personal injuries, the District Court of Appeals yesterday reversed the judgment of the Superior Court in favor of the defendant and denied the motion of the plaintiff for a new trial.

The I.M. Imitation Cheer at Carnival Now.

Violation of Law at Labor Temple Draws Fire.

Neither Illegal Purveying of Beer Nor Gambling Shall be Tolerated at "Carnival," Order of Police Commission—Near-house is the Substitute.

The Police Commission yesterday ordered the lid screwed on the "carnival" in progress at the Labor Temple. Following police action Monday night, when sale of beer without a license was ordered suspended, the commission yesterday issued a drastic order to the police department, directing that no form of gambling or the sale of beer or other intoxicants at the "carnival" must be permitted.

When officers on Monday night ordered the suspension of beer sales in the Labor Temple, Secretary Thomas Barker of the "carnival" arranged to go before the Police Commission yesterday morning and explain.

According to information secured by the police, beer was given to Labor Temple trollees Monday night in exchange for scrip, which was purchased at the entrance of the building. This scrip was so carefully distributed, it was stated, that 14-year-old boys and girls secured the intoxicant and there were minor brawls that did not add to the pleasure of the women and children present.

Promoters of the affair agreed Monday after official interference to suspend their open defiance of city ordinances, but arrogantly announced they would continue to sell "imitation" beer.

Chief of Police Butler, through his secretary, H. J. Wambold, yesterday detailed two plainclothes men to attend the "carnival" last night and see that all the beer purveyed was, in fact, "imitation."

Clemency. A DOLLAR, PLEASE.

Man Who Unwittingly Violated Neutrality Law is Let Off With Light Fine When It Develops He Did Everything Possible to Right Wrong.

United States District Judge Bladsoe handed down a record judgment yesterday when he assessed a fine of $1 against R. D. Salazar, following his plea of guilty to a charge of violating the neutrality laws.

Salazar is employed by a fishing concern in San Diego, and at the request, it appears, of the Mexican customs officials at Ensenada, purchased and had sent to that port seven Winchester rifles and some ammunition to be used in official duties about the customhouse.

Later on, Salazar discovered he had violated the neutrality laws and made a trip to Ensenada and brought the firearms home, turning them over to the customs authorities at San Diego.

Judge Bladsoe in fixing the fine stated that Salazar was a subject for pity, having violated the law unwittingly, and then did his best to right the wrong. The kind words of the court so affected Salazar that he broke into tears. He paid the fine willingly and took the first train home to his sick wife in San Diego.

Going Down. FROM HEIR TO FELON.

Court Sentences to Penitentiary a Youth Who was Raised in Home of Wealth, Became Janitor and Stole Money After Breaking Into Desk.

From Denver heir to bank janitor, and now to wear a convict's number on breast and back, are steps in the downfall of Floyd D. Harlow, 27 years old, who was sentenced by Superior Judge Craig yesterday to serve three years in Folsom. He was convicted of grand larceny.

Evidence showed Harlow's father was a prosperous business man in Denver, but the son had become a vagrant and drifted to California. Here he was employed as a janitor in the German-American Savings Bank. He was convicted of having picked open the private desk of David A. Beyer, a bank official, and having stolen $45.

With Bare Hands. HANDLES L.W.W.'S.

Railroad Contractor of Butte, Who is Now Visiting City, Finds Little Difficulty in Squelching the Outbreaks of this ilk.

Handling L.W.W.'s is a specialty of Ben Hager, rich railroad contractor of Butte, Mont., who is staying at the Roslyn.

On several of his big construction works the problem of these itinerant malcontents became a burning one, and on several occasions Mr. Hager, who is massive in his proportions, broke up the rings with his bare hands.

"They understand that kind of treatment much better than words," he said.

One of the first things the visitor did after registering was to hurry away to one of the automobile shops and order a beautiful, high-priced runabout for use during the next two months of his sojourn here.

NEW of the marriage of Mrs. Evelyn C. Allen, divorced wife of Carroll Allen, prominent Los Angeles attorney and banker, to Dr. Stewart Hope Johnstone, a surgeon of New York, came to her friends here as a surprise yesterday.

Although the ceremony was performed in New York City in December, the former Mrs. Allen made known the secret only to her mother and sisters.

At the time Mrs. Allen took up her residence at Rend it was reported among her intimate friends that she would marry Mr. Johnstone as soon as she was free and that she was wearing a magnificent diamond-and-emerald engagement ring. There were whispers, also, that Mr. Allen would take a new bride. He verified these reports by announcing his engagement to Mrs. Orlin T. Higgins, widow of the son of a former New York Governor. The marriage took place shortly before Christmas, at Nashville, Tenn., at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. G. Bransford. Mr. Allen and his bride are now in San Francisco, following an extensive honeymoon tour.

According to relatives of the former Mrs. Allen, she and her new husband are living in Kansas City. The funeral will be conducted at 2 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, of which Mr. Stimson was a member. The officiant will be Dr. Hugh K. Walker, former pastor of the church. Though the body will finally be interred at the old home at Gray, Me., it will be placed for the present in a vault here.

ACID, NOT DYNAMITE.

Analysis of Cigar Sent Pacific Electric Wharf Foreman Fails to Reveal Any Explosive Substance—Believed Work of Outed L.W.W.

Postoffice Inspector Ranger yesterday completed a survey of the alleged dynamite cigar sent G. A. Brown, foreman of the Pacific Electric wharf at Redondo Beach. He found that while the cigar has nothing in common with the smokes sent to various parties about Christmas time, there is a possibility of some acid having been introduced into the end of the cigar, so that when lighted, it would create a noxious gas of some character.

It is hinted that the cigar might have come from some of the L.W.W. workers on the wharf, who were ousted by the railroad company and the city authorities of Redondo Beach as a result of labor trouble, but there is nothing tangible even to confirm the view. The powder on the end of the cigar is almost impalpable and can only be seen with a glass.

SPITTING DEATH DRIVES HIM INTO BULLET HAIL.

Officer Wins a Desperate Battle with Wire Thieves in Mountains.

A BATTLE in the mountains between wire thieves and a special officer, in which the thieves built a barrack of bullets about the officer until he was driven back within the death arc of a snarling live wire in the full expectation of being incinerated, was breathlessly told in a long-distance appeal for aid to the sheriff's office yesterday by Special Officer William Curson.

The sensational conflict occurred near Newhall, where the Pacific Light and Power Company is stringing new high-tension cables. Early yesterday morning Officer Curson went with Foreman J. E. Powers to the spot in the canyon where 4500 feet of copper cable, worth $1 a foot, had been left on drums.

When they arrived there, they found four thieves cutting up the cable on the drums. Also the thieves, who were competent electricians, had strung a grounding wire on the high-tension cables over the canyon and had broken the cables. They were confining this also when Curson, several yards ahead of Powers, came upon them.

Immediately the four men began shooting at him. Curson backed, but two of the thieves cut off his retreat by flanking him, so the only way in which he could retire was directly into the area blinding with the electricity escaping from the end of the broken high-voltage cable.

He was first warned of the dramatic and certain death behind him when he heard the electricity sizzling at his back. So he walked back into the face of the four revolvers playing upon him. All the time he was shooting at the thieves, but their flight was lost in the traveled roadway.

WOMAN IS HELD AS AUTO THIEF.

First Female Jailed Here on Common Charge.

Under Bond, Waits a Hearing with Male Companion.

Climbs Detective's Frame to Ward off Arrest.

Helen Guyer, a trained nurse, and the first woman arrested in the city on a charge of having stolen an automobile, was arrested Saturday by Police Detectives Hickey and Ervin, and Detective Powell and Lowe of the theft bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

It is alleged they have been stealing automobiles more than a year, trading the stolen machines for diamonds they sold in court yesterday. They are charged with grand larceny. They were arrested Saturday by Police Detectives Hickey and Ervin, and Detective Powell and Lowe of the theft bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

It is alleged she would sit in the car to be stolen, to see if there was any danger of detection. After she had remained without disturbance for a few minutes, she would get out, have the machine started, and drive away. At times she was found sitting in cars and would then excuse herself, saying she had mistaken the car for that of a friend for whom she was waiting.

When the detectives went to No. 317 West 5th-street, where the couple lived, Miss Guyer denied Webb was in the house. Detective Hickey started toward the rear of the house, Miss Guyer leaped upon him, put her arms around his neck, threw her legs around his body and shouted, "Run, Webb, run!"

With the aid of Detective Mr. Hickey reached the back room in time to stop Webb. The couple are held under $1000 bond each for a preliminary hearing Tuesday.

GRAVE BLUNDER IN ASSESSMENT ROLLS.

LEVY UPON CITY PROPERTY IS TROUBLE-MAKING.

Public Service Commission learns Union Hollywood Water Holdings, recently taken over by Municipality, Have Heavy Delinquent Tax Against Them.

Some one blundered, and the property of the Union Hollywood Water Company, taken over by the city, was regularly assessed as private property on the last assessment roll. It was taxed in the sum of $18,018.31; the taxes were unpaid, the property went delinquent, and there is now $151.82 penalty attached. Under the provisions of the property would be advertised for sale.

Yesterday the Public Service Commission discovered this situation and it decided to appeal to the City Council to cancel the assessment.

Litigation over the bonds voted by the Hollywood district, to pay for this system and extensions and betterments, is still holding up the sale of the bonds, and this is causing the water department considerable embarrassment. Money was advanced from water revenue to carry on the extension work, with the expectation it would be refunded from proceeds of the bond sale long before this. The result is that other departments are cramped for funds, and it is possible work will have to be stopped on the raising of the dam at the San Fernando reservoir.

Chief Engineer Mulholland stated yesterday this work is costing from $1800 to $19,000 a month, the corps is fully organized and it must not be stopped if there is any available way to continue to finance it.

The commission awarded a contract to the Capital Milling Company for 500 tons of rolled barley for feed of horses and mules used on the raising of the dam.

Notification was received that the Porter Estate Company has rejected the offer of the city of $175,000 for the major portion of the Chatsworth reservoir site, and the commission decided to begin condemnation proceedings to acquire the property.

CONTRACTOR INSOLVENT.

J. K. McKnight, a contractor of this city, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court, yesterday. He gives his liabilities as $21,679.81, all unsecured but $75 due workmen for wages, and his assets are scheduled as $1950, of which $1500 is alleged to be unliquidated claims.

TO REMEMBER THE MAINE.

Monument to Her Dead Heroes will be Unveiled Tomorrow.

Under the auspices of the Spanish War Veterans a monument in commemoration of the men who lost their lives when the United States steamship Maine was blown up in Havana Harbor will be dedicated at the Soldiers' Home tomorrow, the nineteenth anniversary of the destruction of the warship. Capt. W. T. Holmes will deliver the dedicatory address.

A tablet, made of metal from the Maine, has been ingested into the face of the granite monument. It states that on February 15, 1898, the Maine was destroyed while visiting the port of a friendly nation and that 266 American seamen lost their lives. All soldiers and sailors who participated in the Spanish-American war are invited to attend the ceremonies as well as all other American veterans.

Dr. J. W. Kline
206 Moore Bldg.
Fort Worth, Tex.

This is said to prove Mrs. Barrett was murdered.

It is a photograph of a dentist's bill, three years old, to Mrs. J. L. Drake, who later became Mrs. Irene Barrett. A dentist of Fort Worth identifies the jawbone found on the Santa Monica "murder farm" with that of Mrs. Barrett by this record.

BRING VITAL EVIDENCE IN THE BARRETT CASE.

WHEN Police Detectives King and Cline returned from Texas Monday night with two prisoners, they also brought with them evidence that may send to the gallows or to prison, Benton L. Barrett, the aged Santa Monica ranchman, charged with having murdered his wife and his stepson, Raymond Wright.

This bit of evidence is a three-year-old dental bill, on which was drawn a diagram of work performed for Mrs. Barrett when she was Mrs. J. L. Drake of Fort Worth. The bill is a duplicate, made out and kept on file by Dr. C. W. Kline of Fort Worth. It called for $45 for two peculiar pieces of bridgework, one embracing four teeth and another two; and three teeth that had been crowned with gold.

The dentist drew a rough diagram of the work on the right-hand margin of the bill and had a set of peculiar symbols for each kind of work. The bridgework was represented by an oval with divisions for the teeth, and the crown by arrows indicating the teeth so treated. In addition, the body of the bill tells the kind of work performed. There is still $15 due on the work and for this reason the document was retained in the dentist's files.

By some mistake in transmitting a telegram Dr. Kline was referred to as Kelly and his residence as a place 18 miles from Fort Worth. Only the thoroughness of the detectives, who made a canvass of the city's dentists, prevented the incriminating evidence from being overlooked.

The officers declare that with the jawbone found in the fire at Santa Monica, which bears bridge work and crowns similar to those placed by Dr. Kline, together with Barrett's confession and other evidence, the guilt of the rancher will be established.

Attorney Lewis D. Collins, former chief counsel for the defense, announced his withdrawal from the case yesterday. Attorney Earl Rogers withdrew several weeks ago. The real fight for the life of the aged rancher will be conducted by Morton, Behrmer, Craig & Salaman. Yesterday they held an extended consultation with their client and later announced that Barrett had provided every facility to fight the case.

"We still contend that Mrs. Barrett and her son are alive," said Attorney Ona Morton. "We will further deny that any living man can identify the alleged plates found in the Santa Monica fire as those made by the Texas dentist. In fact, some of the teeth are missing and the plates, made of a silver alloy, are warped and melted beyond the power of any man to really identify them."

It was stated that two sons-in-law of Barrett are coming here to help him. His children, the attorneys say, have failed to respond to repeated appeals for help.

Barrett was unmoved by the new evidence and declared that he is trusting in God for help and couldn't say what really happened. If the testimony of the State is strong enough to convict, it was yesterday intimated that the defense may fall back on an insanity plea.

There are no eggs, nor is there a pat of butter. The latter two of our usual high-cost grievances have recently been removed from the menu, and are no longer aristocratic. Well, no, not exactly actual are those vegetables that you would never guess but they had just been pulled from the kitchen.

NATIONAL LEAGUE ABROGATES AGREEMENT WITH PLAYERS' FRATERNITY.

Future Dealings Will Be With Individuals, Not Organization

Baseball League will be Backed Up by American League and National Commission—Fultz Refuses to State Probable Action of Fraternity.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—The National League and the American League have today announced that they have agreed to back up the American League's resolution to abrogate the agreement with the Players' Fraternity. The resolution, which was adopted by the American League on Jan. 25, provides that the league will deal with individual players, rather than with the organization as a whole. The National League, which has not yet taken any action on the matter, is expected to follow suit.

The American League's action is a direct result of the refusal of the Players' Fraternity to accept the league's offer of a new contract. The league had offered a contract which provided for a salary of $10,000 per year, but the fraternity had refused to accept it. The league's action is a clear indication that it is determined to stand by its resolution, and that it will not be intimidated by the threat of a strike.

The National League's decision to back up the American League's resolution is a significant development in the baseball labor dispute. It shows that the two leagues are united in their determination to deal with the players' organization on an individual basis. This move is expected to put the Players' Fraternity in a difficult position, as it will now have to deal with the combined power of both leagues.

The Players' Fraternity has responded to the leagues' action by stating that it will not be intimidated by their threats. It has said that it will continue to fight for its rights, and that it will not accept any contract that does not provide for a salary of $10,000 per year. The fraternity's stance is a clear indication that it is determined to stand by its demands, and that it will not be easily intimidated.

The baseball labor dispute is now in a critical stage. The leagues have taken a strong stand, and the Players' Fraternity has responded in kind. The outcome of the dispute is now uncertain, but it is clear that both sides are determined to stand by their positions. The dispute is expected to continue for some time, and it will be a major event in the history of the sport.

The baseball labor dispute is a complex issue, and it is one that has attracted the attention of the entire baseball community. The leagues' action is a clear indication that they are determined to deal with the players' organization on an individual basis, and the Players' Fraternity's response is a clear indication that it is determined to stand by its demands. RELAY CARNIVAL TAKES ON A TONY APPEARANCE.

BY WARDE POWLER.

PLAYING an unheralded and unusual role, Charlie Keppen's A.A.U. relay championships loom into the local field of vision as the principal athletic event of the week. Two hundred of the best athletes in the south have entered one or more of the four events, and everything on the bill promises to be out of the ordinary.

MEDICINE BALL PROVES DEADLY.

Stovall Disappears on Rather Mysterious Mission.

Hold-outs Continue to Worry the Managers.

Frank Chance's Ultimatum is Expected Soon.

George Stovall herded a few of his ball players together yesterday morning about lunch time, purchased a brand-new medicine ball of large dimensions, and disappeared. None of the outfit has been heard from since. Evidently an afternoon's entertainment, with the medicine ball in the principal role, put the whole gang to bed early in the evening.

Stovall's disappearance is a mystery. It is expected that Frank Chance will issue an ultimatum soon, and that the hold-outs will continue to worry the managers. The situation is expected to remain tense for some time.

Bairdstown Property Owners Rejoice at Decision.

Litigation Over Road Work Covers Two Years.

Oppressive Cost of Improvement Causes Contest.

There is great rejoicing on the part of property owners in the vicinity of Bairdstown, for after two years of protracted litigation, the court has decided that the proceedings for the creation of the assessment district in road improvement district No. 1 and the bonds issued are invalid, and has enjoined County Tax Collector Welch from enforcing the assessment or selling the property in the district to satisfy the bonds represented by $14,000 worth of bonds.

The property owners have been fighting to be relieved from paying an alleged excessive and oppressive tax of $12 a year on each $100 of assessed valuation for highway improvement work in the district. Yesterday Judge Finkler, in a decision, and his decision gave great satisfaction to a large number of property owners who were in court.

As a result of this decision, there is apparently no legal way to pay for the improvement work, including grading, curbing and sidewalks. The work was completed in 1914, and bonds were issued to the contractors, who sold them through bond houses and brokers. These include local and outside investors. When the legality of the assessment was questioned, the holders made haste to dispose of the bonds. They were passed on from one to another until the present owners cannot be determined. Because of this, many of the holders have been unable to defend the legality of the issue. The County Counsel made an effort to locate the owners of the bonds, but the only apparent effect was to cause them to be located.

Judge Finkler held that he could not provide in his decree that the bonds be sold, but he said that this order could be made whenever the bond holders were ascertained and given their day in court. In his decision the court found that no grade was established in certain parts of the street.

Two suits were tried, one brought by W. C. Dillingham and others, and one by Grand Jurors and others. Attorneys Fleming and Knott represented the property owners, and Deputy County Counsel Bishop the tax collector.

SCHMIDT A WITNESS.

Corrupted Dynamite, County Jail Remains Pending Appeal, Given Testimony at Grand Jury's Renewed Inquiry Into Alleged "Capping."

Further inquiry into alleged testimony between attorneys and witnesses in the County Jail was continued yesterday by the grand jury. Matthew A. Schmidt, convicted dynamite, who long has been a resident in the County Jail awaiting appeal for a new trial, was called as one of the witnesses.

The grand jury called its session in the County Jail, using the second story for the hearing. Schmidt, it appears, has collected much information regarding the alleged manufacture of dynamite, and the court attorneys to maintain an embargo against coming attorneys and enter all the witnesses that issue from the jail.

Deputy District Attorney Ralph is attending the hearings and questioning the witnesses. An effort will be made to either conclusively prove the non-existence of fact-finding or to secure evidence that certain attorneys and jail attendances performed themselves in their testimony before the grand jury.

SLAYING CASE.

Man Who Wife Says Killed Her Father has Hearing.

Thomas Redman, accused of having murdered his father-in-law, William Redman, February 24, 1914, in their home at No. 124 North Broadway street, was given a preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice Haney. The hearing was continued.

Attorneys Durham and Hickey, representing Redman, announced that they could secure witnesses to prove that Redman killed his father. She testified at a preliminary hearing of Redman directly after the homicide. Recently she declared she had married herself and that her husband had committed the assault.

Informal Vote.

TEJUNGA RESIDENTS IN LINE FOR ANNEXATION.

TEJUNGA communities whose land holdings represent nearly 4500 acres have taken informal votes on the proposition of offering their territory for annexation to Los Angeles. The vote was overwhelmingly in favor of coming into the municipality.

Under the direction of Chief Engineer Mulholland of the aqueduct department the territory is being surveyed, to determine what acreage can be served by the Massey high line, and boundary descriptions for the proposed annexation district will be prepared and presented to the City Council, so that a formal decision can be called for the Tejunga district.

The movement is backed by the Tejunga Water and Land Improvement Association, of which William L. Lott is the president; Fred Lott, secretary, and J. E. M. Gordon, Mr. Carter and Mr. Lott are the executive committee.

The vote taken by this association, which was shown on a ballot, was in favor of annexation and only two opposed. The Tejunga Territory contains thirty-two in Deputy Sheriff, at Arrangement of Auto, Mechanic Charged with Joy Riding, Allegedly, Tell of Sunrise Bathing with a Clothesless Nymph.

How T. L. Croom, an automobile mechanic, and a young woman are alleged to have bathed at dawn in a "love pool" in a near-by canyon and sported on the bank like nymphs until the morning sun dried their bodies, was related in Superior Judge Craig's court yesterday, when Croom appeared for arraignment. He was originally charged with grand larceny, but by agreement of attorneys the charge will be dismissed and Croom will enter a plea February 20 to a charge of driving a car without permission of the owner.

The alleged aquatic of the young couple were observed by deputy sheriff John Finkler, who was recovering a car he is said to have taken from the garage of E. T. O'Reilly, 6101 north of Hollywood.

FIRE FIGHTER HERE.

Pioneer Outfitter of Great Wealth, Who Organized Force to Combat Blazes at Chayenne in the Early Days, Arrives to Spend the Winter.

Ferry Hoyt, champion fire chief of the cattle country, is at the Alhambra Hotel, where he is spending the winter. He is a pioneer of the fire department of Cheyenne, Wyo., and later the regular department, as a hobby. When he traveled from home, even as far as the Pacific Coast, his fire-fighting associates kept him informed of the blazes occurring for miles around. Mr. Hoyt followed this line merely for amusement. Many years ago he was a fire-fighter in Cheyenne, when "Uncle Sam paid for the feed," as he put it. "It was the day before horses were known and when the fire department was in its infancy. Out of this he created a great fortune, and during the past few years he has been a successful entrepreneur from all lines of business. He is passing the winter here."

The main object is to obtain water in service from the Los Angeles aqueduct, and that cannot be secured on lands outside the municipality. There has been deep dissatisfaction with the service of the Tejunga Water Company and the community has determined to take possession of the water. The water is in the light that is now on before the State Railroad Commission over the application of that company for permission to issue $150,000 more bonds.

The Henson Heights and Tejunga Improvement Association has authorized J. B. W. Gordon to appear for it before the Railroad Commission, in the position of an intervenor. Notice of this action has been sent to the commission's headquarters and was received yesterday, says Mr. Gordon, that he will be given a hearing some time this week, before Commissioner Loveland in Los Angeles. He declares he will make sensational charges, and that practically all of the Tejunga residents will be on hand to substantiate his statements of ill-treatment by the water company and those to whom appeals for

CLEARS WAY FOR STREET OPENING.

JUDGE FINDS CORPORATION'S FLEA NOT VALID ONE.

Date is Set for Hearing Report of Referendum in Sixteenth-street Condemnation Case—Pacific Electric Protests Action on Grounds of Previous Judgment.

Judge Hewitt yesterday set the hearing on the referee's report in the condemnation suit of the city of Los Angeles against A. H. Schoenhar and approximately fifty other property owners, to acquire property for the opening of Sixteenth street, from Pacific to Normandie avenues, for March 23. The referee awarded $17,700 damages to twenty-five property owners and made a nominal award to the others. The corporation held that the judgment given in the opening of this street and tried by Judge Hewitt, was not valid. The hearing action, Judge Hewitt held that the hearing should go ahead.

The city first began proceedings to condemn Sixteenth street, between Pacific and Normandie avenues in 1908 and obtained an interlocutory judgment. The decision was reversed in 1911. The city then proceeded to levy an assessment in 1912 to pay the judgment of about $150,000 awarded the then owners.
